

12.12.

7-9 pm

The event venue will be announced separately

The event will be held in English

PRESENTATION AND DISCUSSION

ACADEMIC FREEDOM IN BELARUS: STATE REPRESSION AND ITS CONSEQUENCES WITHIN THE COUNTRY AND ABROAD

Organised by

SCIENCE AT RISK Emergency Office
by Academic Network Eastern Europe (akno e.V.)

in cooperation with

DGO - German Association for East European Studies
FernUni Hagen

▶ AGENDA ◀

Welcome addresses	Felix Ackermann , FernUni Hagen Gabriele Freitag , DGO - German Association for East European Studies
Keynote	Michael Nowak , Head of Division for Russia and Belarus, Federal Foreign Office
Presentation	SCIENCE AT RISK Emergency Office Monitoring Report: (The Monitoring Report is co-authored with Maryia Rohava, independent analyst) Philipp Christoph Schmädeke , SCIENCE AT RISK Emergency Office Hanna Vasilevich , International Centre for Ethnic and Linguistic Diversity Studies in Prague Current State of Academic Freedom and Major Challenges for the Future of Belarusian Science and Higher Education Vasil Navumau , Center for Advanced Internet Studies (CAIS), Bochum Academic Emigration from Belarus: Challenges of Integration
Discussion	Irina Ramanava , European Humanities University, Vilnius Olga Shparaga , University of Vienna Tatiana Shchytsova , Advisor on Education and Science, Office Tsikhanouskaya Moderated by Felix Ackermann , FernUni Hagen

Q&A