

09.12.

6–8 pm

Humboldt University of Berlin
Law Faculty
Unter den Linden 9, 10117 Berlin
Room E25

The event will be held in English

PRESENTATION AND DISCUSSION

ACADEMIC FREEDOM IN RUSSIA: STATE REPRESSION AND ITS INFLUENCE ON ACADEMIC PRACTICE

Organised by

SCIENCE AT RISK Emergency Office
by Academic Network Eastern Europe (akno e.V.)

in cooperation with

LSI - Integrative Research Institute Law & Society at the Humboldt University of Berlin
DGO - German Association for East European Studies

▶ AGENDA ◀

Welcome addresses Silvia von Steinsdorff, LSI – Integrative Research Institute Law & Society at the Humboldt University of Berlin
Gabriele Freitag, DGO - German Association for East European Studies

Presentation SCIENCE AT RISK Emergency Office Monitoring Report:
(The report is co-authored with Ekaterina Trubnikova, independent researcher)

Philipp Christoph Schmädeke, SCIENCE AT RISK Emergency Office
Dmitry Dubrovskiy, Charles University in Prague; Brīvā Universitāte, Latvia
Development of Higher Education System since the 1990s and the Current State of Academic Freedom in Russia

Yegor Albitskii, European University at St. Petersburg; Institute for East European Studies at the Free University Berlin
Changes in Research Topics of Russian Scholars since 2022: Evidence from Bibliometric Databases

Discussion Dmitry Dubrovskiy, Charles University in Prague; Brīvā Universitāte, Latvia
Michael Nowak, Head of Division for Russia and Belarus, Federal Foreign Office
Julian Hamann, Department of Education Studies, Humboldt University of Berlin

Moderated by Silvia von Steinsdorff, LSI - Integrative Research Institute Law & Society at the Humboldt University of Berlin

Q&A